II. REPORTS

2. Chairperson's Report on various items. (15-4205)

Chairperson Montaña shared the following Newspaper Article with the Commission:

Daily Breeze

- Sybil Brand Panel's Jail Oversight Role Could End (September 7, 2015)

During a brief discussion of the article, the Commissioners gave feedbacks on their visits with their respective Supervisors/Board Deputies to find out the Supervisors' overall vision for the Commission moving forward. Further discussion resulted in a consensus amongst the Commissioners that the Commission's By-laws need to be revised to reflect the recommended new processes that will help the Commission conduct its business/inspections in a more effective and efficient manner. There was also a consensus to correspond with the Justice Deputies to inquire if they have decided on the guidelines and/vision for the Commission.

There was also conversation on the Commission's collaboration with other County Commissions and how the Commission can make its work more visible to the general public. To that effect the Commission will revisit how the information for the Commission's annual report is gathered and prepared to better advise the Board and the general public of the work that the Commission is doing. In line with advising the Board of Supervisors of its work, the Commission will be sending a correspondence to the Board to advise them of the Commission's meeting with the Sheriff's Department to discuss the Inmate Welfare Fund.
